SENSATION IN GERMANY.

LONDON, February 6.
Mr. Lees' speech, mentioned in yesterday's telegrain, has cau-ed a sensation in Gormany. The papers are angrily demanding an explanation. Some of them declare that Germany will now work with resolubled energy in order to increase her sea nower.

k with reconsection ber sea power, can have a power, can have that he mad was that we aum all naval powers to be possible. Owing to the growth of, such naval our possible enemies are more numeral was against the possible enemies are more numeral was againently, we have enemies. Owing to the growth of, such naval powers, our posible enemies are more nume-roas than hitherto, and, consequently, we have to keep an auxious eye not only on the Medi-terranean but also on the North Sea. The "Chambard" learns from Berlin that, unless Lord Landsowne prompty repudiates the speech, Germany will ask for an explain-tion. (Restar-)

Professor Pélix's concert took place at the Kheiisial Hotel on Saturday night as anonancel, and considering the wet and temperaturely vender, was well attended. We must contentiate the professor on his courage in fixing a more modest price for the tickets than is customary here for local artistes, who expect their kind friends to pay the same price for the pleasure of hearing them perform as they would do for distinguished artistes from Europe who can command audiences without he disagreeable touting system in vognei this country. Mr. Pélix's selection of piece was as it ought to have been, a happy one, as his silvery touch was shown off to perfection ment of them. If there was one piece user than another that elicited enthussatel applianes we might pick out an expidied nore than another toat elected electronsectors, poplause we might pick out an exquisite Nocturne of Chopin's (Opus 15 No. 2), in thich an off-recurring melody framed in flowing cadenzas brought out the pianist's remark ong caclemas brought out the pianist's remark-ble agility of finger. Wagners "Chour des Fileuses," from his "Vaisseau Pantöne," arranged by Liet, was also moth appreciated. "Il Sagarestano!" was affusing; and was should like; to here more of Big. nor Sala, the "timbre" of whose wide his some otherms staging; and change were alike all these could be desired. We truit that other, performances will maintain this level, and do away with the undoubtedly had impression estased by Bigoletto (amongst other pieces given). Was goodle agreed as to the orchestra. Though, it is containly composed of good municions, and directedly as efficient conductor, there is often apparent's accretion want of judgment, which might well be remedied,—a heat of complete harmony with the singers. This, in light cypens, when the modeline for the chief performers are her most greeniest by att, may not be on harmony estimated to be it in the piece where the Trates, or in description is any piece where the effect: but it is latal in any soon opens as Triesm, or incled it navy piece where this composer has devoted his attention to the music and not only to those who execute it. In a word, we would wish to find (and we have a right to expect) this, sense of exemple, which it is the duty, as it should be the pleasure, of the Khedivial Opers House to present its audience.

RefOLETTO.

Last night, a very excellent performance of Rigoldsts was given at the Abhas Theater. Excellent, we say, because in every respect the "ensemble" was a matter of admiration and, at times, even for burgeries. In Rigolation and, at times, even for burgeries in the restriction and, at times, even for burgeries. In Rigolation Vertil began to realise in a way which he hitherto had not sermined, the shaportant and extensive powers of his missife Up to this point he had written machine, the shaportant and extensive powers of his missife Up to this point he had written such the second with the morrough sprint of time that was within him, and to give hisself up entirely to the second with the remains matter in hand. Last night's performance of the open was eminently successful. Signors Syicher, in the part of Gilda, was from every point of view a very great success; har vioie, which possesses some of the most exquinite qualities of modern vocalisation, was proved on this occasion to possess an exquinite and, if one may use the adjusting the analysis of the part of the himself of the control of the very second on the ve
